Description:

Used for two years in my overland rig. I am

The original owner. Capacity is 45L. Runs smooth and quiet no problems. Great size for solo traveler/camper or couple. Just installed the protective/ insulating cover this season. Only reason I'm selling is because I want a bigger size with a freezer or ice making feature. Comes with all power cords and baskets/divider. Does not come with the he fridge slide. Fridge and cover sell brand new for around $1100 plus shipping. I will part with it for $700. Low ballers need not bother.
